Triumph's website gets a new look, Welcome to Triumph's new world.

Recently launched, Triumph's brand new Website. This new look confirms Triumph's key role as a major provider of creative interior workspace furniture for the UK furniture industry.

The website has been completely re-designed to provide an innovative dealer portal, with display and presentation facilities to showcase Triumph's product ranges in action.

Designed as a complete resource centre for the business, it integrates our complete product range supported by downloadable technical specifications, CAD libraries and our most popular project photography and case histories.

From the home page there is a greater emphasis on customer resource and a fully dedicated section detailing our ongoing environmental commitment.

We will add frequent updates to our news section, so to stay in touch - please bookmark our new site.

Ross Hart, Triumph Sales Director, explains: "Triumph has a vital role to play in peoples' business activities online and, once they're there, making the internet as simple and easy to use as possible.

"The new look triumphfurniture.com is much more intuitive for users and the improved, clearer home page design will make our website easier to navigate."

Triumph Note to Editors

Triumph is one of the UK's most established and successful names in the corporate furniture business.

For over sixty decades, the company has been behind a truly comprehensive range of workplace furniture for major corporations and institutions.

With an emphasis on strong design and efficient product function, Triumph produces working spaces that can have a direct impact on the performance of a business - and its ability to motivate its people.

Triumph's reputation has always turned on a proper understanding of the key performance requirements on any major project - backed by technical and design expertise, reliability and service - across the complete range of planning and design capabilities that may be needed for any project when working with your preferred dealer.

With manufacturing headquarters in South Wales, Triumph now services customers in Europe and the Middle East - with an additional showroom facility in Holland.
