RAF Northolt in Middlesex

A major new development of single living accommodation for the Royal Air Force

The Project Defence Estates and the Ministry of Defence are in the process of upgrading the RAF single living accommodation at RAF Northolt.

Northolt is the headquarters of the Queen's Flight, and the UK's major military airport on the outskirts of London.

The Brief Provision of fitting out furniture, to a modern standard, was required for two new purpose built accommodation blocks on the base perimeter.

These housed accommodation in the form of one hundred and fifty-three bed sitting rooms, together with their associated mess areas.

Triumph Furniture Triumph worked with contractors Norwest Holst/Vinci Construction to provide the full range of accommodation furniture for all the interiors.

Everything for a complete fit out: from beds, mattresses, storage cupboards and cabinets - to wardrobes, bookcases, soft seating and even bathroom furniture.

Project Scope

Title	Single Living Accommodation for RAF personnel
Location	RAF Northolt, Middlesex
Client	Defence Estates Royal Air Force
Building Contractor	Norwest Holst/ Vinci Construction
Triumph Furniture	A complete range of all furniture needed for the fitting out of two new single living accommodation blocks.
