Welsh Rugby Union Millennium Stadium, Cardiff

New state-of-the-art headquarters offices for the Welsh Rugby Union inside the Millennium Stadium

The Brief To create a new office space inside this iconic Welsh building - dramatising the Welsh Rugby Union's brand values and consolidating all the Union's expertise into one space. It should welcome the world to Wales, and to the Stadium itself

The Building New office space deliberately located at the entrance to the Millennium Stadium. The Stadium is a wholly owned subsidiary of the Welsh Rugby Union, and its new office unites all the key Cardiff based departments under one roof, at its own home ground

The Interior The Welsh Rugby Union specifically chose Bbi - the Brecon based interior specialists - to design the interiors for the new open plan office space

They showcased their capabilities, with designs influenced by Welsh rugby and with accent colours of red, white and green, with carpet details imitating rugby formations, and even rugby ball-shaped work tops.

The Storage Triumph provided the white units with a red accent colour with its flagship range of L^m Combination units

The storage systems gave a strong design aesthetic and more efficient use of space, contributing to an environment of overall accessibility and order
